

Grace and peace to you from GOD our Father and our LORD and SAVIOR, JESUS CHRIST who is preparing a home for every child of HIS in GLORY. May the LORD be with you as we seek to establish a beachhead in anticipation of our KING'S coming.

No Matter what the adversities are in your life, and so many who receive my newsletter are going thru very difficult adversities, IT IS WELL WITH YOUR SOUL. In Phil. 4:4, I am to rejoice in times of oppression because JESUS, the SPOTLESS LAMB came to pay the price for our sin (Rom. 10:9, 10).

As the LION of JUDAH, HE is coming to judge the world in righteousness, bringing in an age of PEACE, JUSTICE and PROSPERITY (III John 2).

July and August were 2 busy months, and I did a lot of worldwide ministry — sitting on Skype and Zoom. It is amazing to me that I can sit at my desktop and share GOD'S HOLY WORD that goes all over the world. I was sharing with my brother, Robert, that a Serbian kid from Wall, PA. is doing worldwide ministry. It all started 39 years ago in the Skid Row Missions of L.A. to prisons all over the country.

GOD always has a plan. (Jer. 29:11-13). My fave scripture for direction and guidance is Ps. 32:8. GOD says, "I will instruct and teach you in the way you should go. I will guide you with MY eye." AND we are ALL called to serve. (Matt. 20:28; Mark 10:45).

My every other Monday, 2-hour BIBLE Study has been well attended with GOD'S encouraging powerful word embracing our mind, heart and emotions. JESUS CHRIST is called the "WORD of GOD" (Rev. 19:13).

I've been doing many "Stick with JESUS" on TRUTH BE TOLD RADIO Network that goes to 40 nations. Many of my messages deal with Spiritual Warfare and the war every believer is in (II Cor. 10:3). On each show, I encourage all to download my Arsenal Prayer from www.melnovak.com.

I went to Daughter Lea's to encourage and pray for Elijah who is going through a new treatment. Also did a zoom show on Blazing the Trail, with excellent host, Jennifer Foster and finished a star role in "Paradise Motel," a Norman Bates 'Psycho' character. It was my 68th film.

Spent August 27 and 28 at the Burbank Marriott Hotel doing the Hollywood show. It was fun meeting a lot of fans. My twice-a-month Omegamanradio.com shows are all over U-tube and Internet that goes to 167 countries. Host Shannon Ray Davis and I have an alter call after each show. I have done 210 shows.

There were countless calls for prayer and so many are hit with fear (II Tim. 1:7) from the Covid 19. Fear and faith cannot exist in the same heart. Fear paralyzes! (Ps. 27:1). No time for prayer, praise or the Word of GOD. Then brokenness sets in.

GOD will never plant the seed of HIS life upon the Soul of a hard, unbroken spirit. GOD hates pride! (Jas. 4:6). He will only plant that seed where the conviction of HIS SPIRIT has brought brokenness, where the soil has been watered with tears of repentance.

I am always encouraging the broken to expose the root of their trials, troubles and adversities in the Garden of their soul (mind, heart and emotions) to uproot strongholds; (II Cor. 10:4) by the LIVING WATER JESUS CHRIST offers, (John. 7:37) the River of LIFE.

It's crucial to replant with FAITH (Heb. 11:6), praying (Matt. 1:28), believing (Jas. 1:6), trusting (Nah. 1:7), standing (Eph. 6:11-17), and PRAISING (Ps. 18:3).

PRAISE ministers to our spirit by creating humility and releasing joy (Neh. 8:10). PRAISE ministers to the deepest part of us, clearing our mind (devil's playground) and calming our emotions while setting our will.

Trials show HE is our sufficiency, our ALL. It's JESUS CHRIST plus O. Trials and brokenness show how approved we are when we go to the LORD, (Matt. 11:28-30).

HE heals us. HE'S faithful. HE loves us. (Jer. 31:3). Trials thru brokenness build confidence and faith. Faith will come out genuine and strong, like pure gold (Heb. 10:23, 35, 36).

ALL who are saved by GRACE thru FAITH (Eph. 2:8) have (by JESUS finished work on the Cross of Calvary): acceptance, assurance, availability, adequacy, abundance and the ABIDING VINE, JESUS CHRIST.

Thanks, love and blessings,

TESTIMONY OF BONNIE

My biggest dream had been to join Sight and Sound Theaters in Lancaster County, and work my way up to be an actress there. At first, I was certain God felt the same way, but things didn't work as I hoped. In 2019, I applied. When I was rejected, I screamed at God, frightened that I went there for nothing. I wanted to die, I tried cutting myself. It was even harder when God told me to move to Lancaster. I knew I needed Him badly. During those days, God dismantled all our plans (Craigslist) and told my mother & me to call churches instead. We were led to a person that a pastor recommended and God confirmed.

January 28th, 2020, I tried once again for Sight and Sound at their job fair. I presented myself in a way I'd assume any employer would love to hear: versatile, eager to learn, learning to speak multiple languages, lives nearby, & eager to help people. I talked about God and how He's been involved in my life. Sight and Sound Theaters is a place that worships God. On my way home, satan spoke saying, "You're a loser; they're going to turn you down again." I then began praying hard & Jesus gave me a vision: before me was a yellow brick wall that nobody could scale or go around. But eventually there was a small, thin, white door, and Jesus said, "There will always be a way out." While waiting for my reply from the theater, I prayed constantly, not that I'd get the job, but rather that this time I would not lose or reject Him again.

The next week, I got another polite rejection. Once again, I felt like I left everything & everyone I loved, came out to Pennsylvania for nothing, & that death was the best way out of the situation. Mama & my older sister not only reminded me that I did hear God when moving to Lancaster, but also how He's worked in my life & helped me so far. With that in mind, as well as Jesus reminding me that I wasn't in this fight alone, I clung onto Him with everything I had in me, as the ongoing attacks came on me.

The first way I was attacked was physically. For the next few days, satan enticed me with suicide, making it sound like the only way out of trouble, shame, and more pain. Each moment, I wouldn't stop praying, reciting scripture, or singing any song that came to mind even while working.

The next way I was attacked was spiritually. "There is no God, or if there is one He is a jerkbag," the devil said. Being honest with myself, I knew from every moment in my life so far that God was not only very real, but He's not a monster teasing His followers. So while figuratively hanging onto the Lord's hand, I rejected the lies.

Then I was attacked was mentally, which was the most grueling part of the fight for me. Satan not only enticed me to give into the deepest & worst parts of my thoughts and emotions, "They think you're mad (crazy), so be mad," but went as far as to remind me of evil men who claimed to hear from God and did evil in His Name. The Lord said, "They never heard from Me. I would never tell them to do what they did." Once that lie was broken, the devil kept urging me to become the insane person that people thought me to be. I would rebuke these invitations by praying and singing.

After 2 long weeks, I realized I could not hear the devil anymore. The Lord and I had won! Today, I don't know if He wants anything from me in terms of Sight and Sound other than praying for them, but in March when the world shut down, I realized the rejection was Him saving me. Had I been given the job, I would have either been forgotten about when the theater reopened or the first to be laid off. Each time, the devil enticed me with suicide, while quarantined all alone, the Lord reminded me of the vision of the wall and the door, urging me to remember that it's not a dead end yet.
